Age control. Prior to commencement of the tournament the team leader must submit to the tournament committee, a registration sheet, which shall contain the full name, date of birth and team number of a maximum of 18 players. All players must provide proof of their age and identity. They may be asked to show this proof at any time.

6. Duration of Play

Each game shall be of 2 equal periods varying from 25 minutes each way.

The tournament committee has the right to alter the duration of play and the tournament format, should a situation arise which makes this necessary.

The half time interval will normally be 5 minutes in length. This period of time must not exceed 7 minutes.

7. Tournament Format.

Preliminary Rounds: Each team will play each other in their section once. The number of points attained will determine the final positions of teams in the preliminary rounds. The points system applied will be:

- 3 points for a win, 1 point for a draw, 0 points for a loss.

Where teams are level on points in their group the following will apply:

- the result of the mutual match – goal difference will not be taken into consideration
- the drawing of lots or where time allows the taking of kicks from the penalty spot

Placing Matches – Intermediate rounds. In the event of a draw, penalty kicks will be taken in accordance with the system laid down by the International Football Association Board in order to determine the winners.

Finals. In the event of a draw, penalty kicks will be taken in accordance with the system laid down by the International Football Association Board in order to determine the winner.

The referee will mark the result of each match on the team sheet, which will be returned to the control centre where the co-ordinator will record the score. Lists of results will be available online at www.glasgowcitycup.org.uk . It is the responsibility of each team to ensure that they know when their kick off times are for the following day. The tournament cannot be responsible for informing teams of kick off times. It is their responsibility to check online.

8. Awards: Trophies will be presented to the first and second placed teams in eleven a side ages only. Where a supplementary competition is organised the winners will receive a trophy and medals – the runners up a trophy only
